

Cindy Maki Is a Life Coach, Energy Healer, Intuitive Card Reader and Facilitator who is absolutely passionate about her work. She is a heart centred positive thinker who offers doing what she loves to help and heal others so they can live a life filled with passion, fulfillment and satisfaction. Cindy is interested in all kinds of things but hands down her truest joy in life is to encourage and support people in finding and living their true, authentic selves

As an intuitive and empath, she brings a unique body/mind/spirit approach to sessions with successful people who find themselves stuck or looking for answers in some area of their lives. Through coaching, energy work or a combination of services, clients create change in a meaningful and powerful way and get themselves “unstuck”.

Cindy is trained internationally in specialized coach training with Marcia Weider as well as co-active coaching through The Coaches Training Institute. She is a Reiki Master and has many different healing modalities to draw upon including Therapeutic Touch, Theta Healing and her favourite modality; Light Therapy. She received her certification in Light Therapy In the beautiful setting of Maui and regards this gentle, life affirming energy work as the most powerful and profound she has ever experienced. Clients rave about the results that come from it.

If you are searching for answers or want to get unstuck, consider working with Cindy. If you don't know where to begin, she offers a complimentary Inner Compass Consultation to connect and engage in the process. She can be reached at 807 629-0009 or email truevision@tbaytel.net
